Way down the island country side, "Behind God's Back" as the locals call it; Tired of monotonous village life, SKIMMA dreams of just seeing something different. It quickly becomes evident that everyone wants what he's selling -- even local Rastaman OIRIS — Skimma is faced with making some money to provide for his new child and keeping his new enterprise out of the reach of the law.

DIRECTOR BIO:

Damian Marcano is from Morvant, Trinidad. His career began shooting shorts in the islands — 'The Little Boy & The Ball', 'GIANTS', and Heart Of A Monster. His feature Award-Winning film "God Loves The Fighter" racked up numerous prizes worldwide - which set him on a path to directing Hollywood titles such as TNT's 'CLAWS', HBO's WIING TIME (The Rise of The Lakers Dynasty), and FX's 'SNOWFALL' to name a few.

DIRECTOR STATEMENT:

I had my first child and I had no clue what I was doing. So I decided to write about it. Like Skimma - I needed some advice and I wished I could call my father, but I had no idea where in the world he was. All I knew all I knew was that I wanted to be out there like a tourist. To come back and tell people stories about all them things I've seen. Living life at a better exchange rate wouldn't be so bad either. So I took a bit of advice from my uncle Karl, god rest his soul. He said - sometimes in life where you want to go you can't go on foot. You're going to need someone with an engine.
